The honor of outwitting all of the others and getting married first after the famous "Cupid Special" excursion from Richmond arrived yesterday under the direction of Mrs. R. J. Gill, falls to Mr. and Mrs. Bernard O. Woodcock, of the Virginia capital. A canvass of all of the married couples under Mrs. Gill's care today, reyeals the fact that they were the first pair to get married. An hour and five minutes after arriving Miss Samonia Blankingship became Mrs. Woodcock. Shortly after that Clerk W. M. Williams, at the City Hall, wore out several pens in writing licenses, while several ministers in the vicinity of City Hall spent the afternoon in answering telephone calls and performing the mar-

"Innovation" Trunks Are the Trunks For the Modern Traveler.

The $20.00 Innovation is shown in three sizes; Steamer, Demi-Steamer and Regular "Innovation" are the original Wardrobe Trunks, the first to be made, and they are the first and best in the opinion of all discriminating travelers. Strong, durable and practical in construction, they afford the utmost protection to their contents and superior convenience and accommodation to their owners.

Regular-size Wardrobe Trunks hold 10 suits and are often larger than is wanted, yet fill the exact needs of many; the Steamer-size Innovation is just the opposite, being too small for many uses, but is the ideal Steamer Trunk, and the best of its kind. For those requiring either of these styles there is nothing better. Now the demi-size is a convenient model between the two, and has become very popular. It will hold 6 suits, and all the dress accessories in proportion, as will the two other models.

All three of the famous "Innovation" Trunks are priced at $20.00, and all three fitted with the wonderfully convenient and scientific adjustable and removable arms for hanging garments in their natural position, and thus keeping them ready for wear immediately upon taking from the trunk—no pressing is required more than actual wear demands.

"Innovation" Trunks are the only Trunks that any model can be used by both men and women; other Wardrobe Trunks are built in distinct models for men's and women's use. These, every model can be used by both sexes, so that economy is a strong feature. Second floor, G st.
